5. Who may request access to information

- (a) In terms of PAIA, a Requester is only entitled to request access to a record if the record is required for the exercise or protection of a right.
- (b) Only requests for access to a record, where the Requester has satisfied the Information Officer that the record is required to exercise or protect a right, will be considered.
- (c) A Requester may request access to a record containing personal information about the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made.
- (d) A public body may request access to a record, but only if the public body is:
 - (i) acting in the interests of the public, and
 - (ii) if the records are required to fulfil or protect any rights other than those of the public body.
- (e) Requesters are referred to the Guide in terms of Section 10 of PAIA, made available by the Information Regulator, which contains information for the purposes of exercising rights in terms of the Constitution. The contact details of the Information Regulator of South Africa: Postal Address: P.O Box 31533, Braamfontein, Johannesburg, 2017. Telephone Number: +27-10-023-5200. Alternatively, you can request a copy of the guide from the Information Officer of Hannover Re South Africa.

6. Policy with regard to confidentiality and access to information

- (a) Hannover Re will protect the confidentiality of information provided to it by third parties, subject to the Company's obligations to disclose information in terms of any applicable law or a court order requiring disclosure of the information.
- (b) If access is requested to a record that contains information about a third party, the Company is obliged to attempt to contact this third party to inform them of the request. This enables the third party the opportunity of responding by either consenting to the access or by providing reasons why the access should be denied.
- (c) In the event that the third party furnishes reasons for the support or denial of access, the Information Officer will consider these reasons in determining whether access should be granted, or not.

7. Grounds for refusal to grant access to records

The main grounds to refuse a request for information are:

- (a) Mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is a natural person, which would involve unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural person;
- (b) Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party, if the record contains trade secrets of that third party; financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interest of that third party; information disclosed in confidence by a third party to the institution, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- (c) Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- (d) Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property;
- (e) Mandatory protection of records, which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings;
- (f) The commercial activities of the Company, including but not limited to: trade secrets of the Company, and certain financial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of the Company;
- (g) Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

8. The request procedure

- (a) The Requester must use the form: Request for Access to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the Information Officer. This request must be made to the address or electronic mail address as set out in clause 4 of this Manual.

- (b) The Requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the Information Officer to identify the record and the Requester.
- (c) The Requester should also indicate which form of access is required in terms of clauses 9 and 10 of this Manual.
- (d) The Requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the Requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.
- (e) The Requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.
- (f) If a Request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the Information Officer.
- (g) The requisite fees payable are set out in the Appendix A - Prescribed fee schedule hereto.

9. Categories of records held by the company
